

2026 International Business Membership Program

Elevate. Expand. Empower.

Navigating North America with Global Connect

Networking through the NKBA channels is so unique. Only as an NKBA member can you get access to so much valuable information, in particular, the industry market reports. In the end, it is the people who make the NKBA Global Connect Program a home for international brands to set sail for the North American marketplace.

– CHRISTIAN KÄSEMANN

Head of Export at Ballerina-Küchen

Mission

The NKBA Global Connect mission is to connect and grow the kitchen and bath industry globally through an international membership program.

Introduction

NKBA Global Connect equips international companies with the support and professional community access they need to thrive in North America. We provide market intelligence, brand positioning guidance, and connections to key North American audiences. By combining NKBA's expert marketing execution with access to a diverse and influential member network, we help businesses increase visibility, build meaningful relationships, and generate strong market demand – ultimately accelerating their success in the lucrative and competitive $228 billion North American market.

Where is NKBA Global Connect Today

Global Connect Annual Program

International Business Membership

Basic NKBA Membership for new-to-North America international brands.*

Cost: $3,750

Global Connect Member Add-On Packages

Advisor Access

NKBA has vetted a group of independent industry experts available for consultation on key topics vital to the success of doing business in North America. Receive one-hour free consultation with advisors of your choice included in this package. This equates to nearly 20 hours of consultation and nearly $5,000 in value. Additional fees apply if you seek additional consultation.

Cost: $2,500

Enhanced Marketing Package

NKBA offers valuable ways to get in front of our 55,000+ members. Choose this plan if you wish to elevate your brand's awareness within the NKBA community via our digital marketing platforms. Global Connect members receive this marketing package at a nearly 20% discount.

Cost: $4,500
(custom packages available)

All-Access (Advisor + Enhanced Marketing Package)

Does your expansion into North America require the expertise of the vetted advisors as well as the support of NKBA's marketing platforms? Then bundle these two packages and receive a 7% discount!

Cost: $6,500

*New to market or in process of establishing US business with less than $10M in annual revenue.

Membership

Membership delivers promotional and educational messages through a variety of channels, including newsletters, webinars, event sponsorships, and social media platforms.

NKBA Profile Page:

NKBA Global Connect members are invited to build a company profile page on NKBA.org, giving them the opportunity to share their company story, product line, and distribution information, and sales team member contact information.

Quarterly Roundup Article:

Members will be included in one quarterly round-up article, announcing new Global Connect members. The release will be posted on the NKBA Global Connect News section of the NKBA website and distributed to domestic and international kitchen and bath industry press.

NKBA.org Blog Post Announcing Membership:

New members will have the opportunity to provide information about their company for inclusion in a unique blog post announcing their membership in NKBA Global Connect. This blog post will provide a great way to introduce yourself to NKBA members!

Opportunities to Create NKBA Education Programs:

These include paid opportunities for manufacturers to reach and inform NKBA member designers, kitchen and bath studios, showrooms, and distributors. NKBA-approved Continuing Education Units (CEUs) demonstrate subject matter expertise.

Access to Online Resource Library:

Increase your North American market knowledge with exclusive access to our carefully curated online resource library — designed specifically to support Global Connect members. Explore a growing collection of webinars, panel discussions, articles, market research reports, trend insights, and more — all tailored to help you navigate and succeed in the North American kitchen and bath market.
